The Salem County Board of Chosen Freeholders will move from its normal meeting site to the Alloway Township Municipal Building for its November 20th meeting. The Board will meet at 6 p.m. for its workshop session prior to the 7:30 regular meeting.

"We are continuing our commitment to bringing government closer to the people of Salem County," said Freeholder Director Julie Acton. "During the past year, we have met at various locations throughout the County so that it is easier for residents to attend meetings. We encourage people in the Alloway area to stop in and say hello and to let us know your concerns and about the things you also think we are doing right."

The Alloway Township Senior Center/Municipal Complex is located at 49 South Greenwich Street (Route 540.)
